For Veterinary Practitioners and Veterinary Nurses

Workshops 2012

11 CVE Credits

TUTOR INFORMATION

Gerard Gilligan qualified in 1978. He has been in mixed practice in Co. Donegal since 1979.

He has developed and delivered courses on Food Safety Management Systems and HACCP on behalf of Food Companies, the Department of Agriculture and Veterinary Ireland.

He is also an Auditor on behalf of the Certification bodies including Bord Bia.

Gerard is experienced in Practice Assessment.

Veterinary Ireland in collaboration with Gerard Gilligan MVB MRCVS present a one day Workshop course on Health and Safety Management specifically written for the Veterinary profession (including the State Veterinary Service) and the Veterinary Nursing profession.

The aim is to equip participants with sufficient knowledge and confidence to enable them to promote a culture and awareness of H&S issues within their own business and within the wider farming community.

Course content includes:

- Legal requirements
- The application of the legal requirements in general practice / small animal practice / meat plants
- The responsibilities of employers (including those in charge of work places) and employees
- Developing a practice specific Safety Statement in the context of due diligence
